

MIXED MESSAGES

A student answers a question wrong.
You say to the student, “Wow you are so smart!”

You got a new haircut and someone in the class says, “That is an awesome haircut you have, where can I get the same one?”

You are at a friend's house and they give you mac
and cheese to eat and you are allergic to cheese.
You say, “Great, mac and cheese is my favorite!”

A classmate accidentally steps on your foot and it really hurts. You say, “Wow that felt amazing, you always know where to step, don't you?”

Your sibling did not do their chores and blamed it on you, so now you have to complete their chores. You say to them, “Doing your chores is exactly what I wanted to do today.”
